BULGARIAN AND ROUMANIAN
WAR NOW INEVITABLE.

Formal Declaration of War.
Servia Invaded.

BULGARIANS ANNIHILATED.

Belgrade, July 8.—According to authoritative private information, the Bulgarian forces, nine battalions strong, which invaded Servia at Kni-ashevatz, were entirely annihilated.
They met the Servian forces and engaged in a battle at the entrance of Bojatzar Pass.

London, July 9.—The Bulgarians are fiercely attacking Piro, on the Belgrade-Sofia railway, according to a Belgrade dispatch to the Mail. A Sofia dispatch to the same paper says
the Bulgarian army captured ten guns at Konevatz, north of Nish. The third army has destroyed between Vranja and Leskovatz seven bridges
on the railway connecting Macedonia and Belgrade. It is reported that the fifth army, marching from Kustendil,
has succeeded in joining the forces
near Kocchana.

A Sofia dispatch to a London news agency says heavy fighting occurred Monday, the Bulgarians attacking the Servian center at Kocchana.

The Servians were repulsed with severe losses. The Bucharest, correspondent of the Mail says a member of the government is authority for the statement that war between Bulgaria
and Roumania is inevitable.

The Post's Bucharest correspondent, reporting that the mobilization of the Roumanian army will be completed
Wednesday and that a few days more will be required to get the army in motion on the frontier, intimates that Roumania intends to fight in order to prevent Bulgaria from crushing Servia
and thus threatening the most intense enthusiasm for the struggle is apparent
among the Roumanian people.

Powers Hands Off.

London, July 8.—The Balkan war, having now been regularized by formal declarations, it is understood that the powers will make no attempt to mediate.
The official Gazette at Belgrade published tonight notice of formal declaration of war against Bulgaria.

Greek Victory Claimed.

Official Greek dispatches claim a Greek victory at Dolran, where the Bulgarians, recently reinforced, were in superior strength to the Greeks, but the latter assert that a whole division of Bulgarians was destroyed and that the Bulgarians fled in such confusion that they left behind loaded guns. This victory is considered of great importance because Dolran
was the Bulgarian vanguard center
and all the provisions fell into the hands of the Greeks.

Bulgarians Massacre.

Saloniki, July 8.—Father Michel, superior of the French Catholic mission
at Kilkish, confirms reports of massacres committed in that district by Bulgarian irregulars. In one instance they burned to death 300 men belonging to Kurkut by imprisoning them in a mosque under which they exploded
bombs, setting the building on fire.
They had previously assembled the victims' wives and daughters to witness the spectacle.

Even more terrible scenes were enacted at Kilkish, Planitz and Ray-

FEE BILL IS DISLIKED

SHERIFFS EXPRESS DISFAVOR WITH MEASURE CUTTING THEIR SALARIES.

Sparks and Kone Favor New Law.
San Antonio After 1914 Meeting.
Many in Attendance.

Austin, July 8.—Before the sheriffs of the state had been in session here
today for more than an hour the question of the fee bill came before the body and the greater majority of the sheriffs expressed themselves decidedly against the amendment to the constitution which practically limits the receipts of their office.
It is very evident that the principal phase of the session will be the discussion of this bill. Commissioner of Agriculture Ed R. Kone, in speaking to the sheriffs this morning, expressed himself as being decidedly in favor of the fee system measure.
The battle is expected to open in full blast tomorrow, as everything pertaining to the fee bill, aside from the addresses, was placed on the calendar
for Wednesday.
San Antonio is being named as the next meeting place of the sheriffs, and there is also some talk of making Austin the permanent meeting place of the organization.

TROOPS BATTLE WITH SAVAGES

SPEAR HURLING MOROS DE-FEATED AFTER HAND-TO-HAND ENCOUNTER.

TRIBE EXTERMINATED

NEWS OF FIGHTING IN PHILIP-PINES REACHES WASHINGTON.

ALL AMERICANS ARE HEROIC

Officers' Control of Men Admirable.
Enemy Completely Routed, Says
Commanding General.

Washington, July 8.—A hair-raising

story of hand-to-hand conflict with spear-hurling Moro savages in a battle
to the death on an isolated mountain top, with no quarter given or expected,
was cabled to the war department from
the Philippines today by Major General Jell. It was the commanding general's report on the campaign of General John J. Pershing which resulted in the extermination of the last considerable band of rebellious Moros and the complete disarmament of this warlike tribe.

Long ago the most of the Moros gave up their arms peacefully, but the few tribesmen in that territory, embracing about twenty square miles on the northern coast of the island of Jolo, made ready for war wherever there was a suggestion of depriving them of their weapons.

10,000 Moros Stampede.

Recently nearly 10,000 of them stampeded to Mount Bagsak, a wild peak which they believed impregnable. Many conferences and patient diplomacy
drew most of them away and sent them to their homes, but three or four hundred of the most desperate fortified their stronghold and prepared to fight it out with the American nation.

"When no reasonable hope of a peaceful conclusion remained," says General Jell in his report today, "First Gen. Pershing arrived at Jolo, and soon during the night of June 10, secretly embarked his command and landing nearby surrounded Bagsak the same night to prevent a stampede of the women and children and noncom-batants to the mountain again.

"Assaults began at daylight, and there was fierce fighting, part of it
hand to hand during five days, marked

MEXICAN REBELS DEFEAT FEDERALS

BATTLE AT MONCLOVA IS PRE-CEDED BY TWO DAYS OF SKIRMISHING.

Eagle Pass, July 8.—Advices from Monclova late this afternoon state that the constitutionalists have inflicted a severe defeat upon the federals under General Navarrotte at a point between Candela and Pannco,
about fifty miles east of Monclova.
For two days there had been skirmishes between the advance guards
of the two armies, and this morning
the bodies encountered each other. The constitutionalists were commanded by Governor Carranza in person, aided by Col. Jesus Carranza and Col. Pablo Gonzales.

After four hours' hard fighting the federals were completely routed and put to flight. Three rapid fire guns, seventy-five cartridges and many small arms and munitions were captured.

Many prisoners were taken and the list of dead and wounded is large on both sides, but details were unobtainable. Many federal officers were captured, but the principal ones, including General Navarrotte himself,
took refuge in flight. The route was complete, the federals throwing down
their arms and running away. The
cannon, made in the railroad shops
at Piedras Negras, played an important part in the fight.

News of the victory was sent by courier to Monclova and telegraphed to Piedras Negras. The federals and constitutionalist forces were about of equal strength so far as can be learned.

De la Barra Resigns.

Mexico City, July 8.—Francisco de la Barra resigned as minister of foreign affairs today. He may go abroad, as he announced some weeks ago, but it is possible that he may return to Toluca, capital of the state of Mexico,
to complete his term of governor, to which office he was elected early in the year.

Senor de la Barra, who recently spent several days at Toluca, declared that he would leave the state government in other hands, but it is reported that President Huerta may insist upon his remaining there instead of absenting himself from the country. Emilio Rabasa, recently appointed ambassador to the United States, is prominently mentioned for the foreign office.

Cultivator Causes Death.

Paris, Texas, July 8.—A runaway team yesterday dragged a cultivator
over Oso Clinton, aged 17, in a field near here, producing injuries that caused death today.

LARGE NUMBER OF BUSINESS MEN SEE THE GAS WELLS OPENED.

CONVINCED OF SUPPLY

AND PLANS ARE TALKED TO GET

CORDIAL IS THE RECEPTION

Accorded the Visitors—Entertained at Dinner—Nugbaum Ready to Put Up Money for Project.

By James Hays Quarles.

Although the people of Waco were willing to accept the faith of the people of Mexia, that they have natural gas in large quantities, the Mexia people do not ask that the faith be accepted, but urged a visit, that ocular demonstration might be given.
It has been given, the fact is established, Waco is offered the gas, and now the position that is to be decided is whether it is to be brought to Waco, and when it is to be done.

The Mexia field is one of wide area,
extending over several miles radius.
There are sixteen wells in the field,
six of which are producers of dry gas
and one a producer with some salt water mud. The field has been developed by the Mexia Oil and Gas company, which is an organization of patriotic citizens, including 110 stockholders. As has been stated heretofore, the field was about to be abandoned when the first strike was made,
and since that time the promoters of the field have learned the gas business. They know just how deep to go and under what conditions to expect production, and they have it down to such a science that they can tell within ten minutes of the time when a well will come in. They are enthusiastic,
but the people of the town are not all of one mind. Those who compose the corporation, that is the producing company, are so many and of so many opinions that it is hard to get a concrete agreement.

Nugbaum Will Take Stock.

Some of them are represented by Julius Nugbaum, who has said to the Waco people that "we want to give you the first choice, we have the gas
to sell, and if you will find the way to pipe it to your town you have first call on us." The statement he made recently when he visited Waco. Now since Waco has visited Mexia, he said
to the visitors and the people of Mexia, assembled in the dining hall of the Commercial hotel in his home town,
"We have confidence in our gas supply, and if it is necessary to pipe it to Waco, I will join with other citizens of Mexia and with the citizens of Waco
in building the line and will put $10,000
in the proposition."

Mr. Nugbaum is able to do this if he wants to make the investment. He has money and lands and a business
house, and stock in industrial concerns, a fine home and good credit.
His ability to finance a company is not to be questioned; his friendship for Waco is spoken and emphatic, and he will do what he says. On the other hand, Mr. Nugbaum is not depending on Waco as a last resort. He exhibited letters yesterday from concerns of large capital who have been in correspondence with him as president of the Mexia Oil and Gas company, but with these concerns he has had no negotiations. Large corporations who are distributing gas to customers in North Texas have had inspectors in the Mexia field, but the inspectors
wanted to inspect and give no information, so the wells have been closed to them. Mr. Nugbaum is willing to negotiate with the corporations and show what there is to be seen, but he wants the other fellow to be as frank as he is. "Play the cards face up on the table" is his motto.

Some Want Factories.

Some of the Mexia people are not disposed to look to outside places for consumers of the gas. They believe
able. Many federal officers were
captured, but the principal ones, including General Navarrotte himself,
took refuge in flight. The route was
their arms and running away. The
cannon, made in the railroad shops
at Piedras Negras, played an important part in the fight.

PEN REPORT IS BIG

COMMITTEE WOULD URGE THAT SPECIAL LEGISLATIVE SES-SION BE POSTPONED.

Findings Will Be Ready to Submit.
Recommendations Differ—Expected
Much Time Will Be Needed.

Austin, July 8.—Had the governor
not already issued his proclamation
calling the special session of the legislature it is possible that the meeting
might have been postponed until August 1. This, at least, was the desire of the penitentiary investigating committee.

Due to the size of the report to be submitted by the committee and the fact that the recommendations of the members of the committee will differ, some time will necessarily be taken when these subjects are presented to the legislature and it was the wish of the committee to have everything in as good shape as possible so as to take the least time for this work.

Senator Willacy stated this morning that the report would be ready for submission to the special session of the legislature.

LAMAR UNFOLDS WONDERFUL STORY OF CRAFT, TRUST CONTROL AND "WALL STREET GAME"

Face My Soul's Salvation," Says Lamar

David Lamar, the "Wolf of Wall street," has proved his right to the title. He has again taken the stand in the senate lobby probe and described the "Wall street frame of mind," saying "to win is the thing." He was often in this "frame of mind."

AVIATOR KILLED AT TEXAS CITY M'ADOO SAVES THE SITUATION

PLANE FALLS FROM GREAT
BROKEN.

MACHINERY WOULDN'T WORK

Tries to Steady Plane and Then Jumps in Effort to Save Self.
Was Well Known.

Galveston, July 8.—While engaged in making practice flights at a height of more than 500 feet above the aviation field at Texas City this morning,
First Lieutenant Loren H. Call of the aero squadron, attached to the second division of the United States army, in some manner lost control of his machine and was dashed to death before large crowds who were watching the flights.

Seeing that his machine was dropping rapidly, Lieutenant Call made several attempts to set her right but to no avail,
and when he saw that he must strike the ground he jumped from the machine, fracturing his skull breaking his neck and crushing his body by the fall.

The machine was torn to splinters
a few seconds later when it came in contact with the earth.

Whether the propellers went wrong,
the wings refused to work or the steering gear broke has not been learned.

Lieutenant Call joined the aero squad
shortly after the troops came here and was regarded as one of the most expert and experienced men in the aviation corps. He was about 25 years old and enjoyed a wide acquaintance among army circles and airplane fans throughout the country. The remains are being held pending advices from relatives who were wired immediately after the accident.

Fire Practically Wipes Out Town

New Orleans, July 8.—Independence, La., a town of 1000 inhabitants, practically was wiped off the map today
by fire, entailing a loss estimated tonight at $200,000 to $250,000. No one was seriously hurt.

The blaze started in the Klotz hotel
from a defective fuse soon spread to near this building and then into the residence sections. Fire fighters from Amite and Hammond, La., hurried to the scene on special trains, and when they left tonight only three buildings, a small box factory and two dwellings, were left.

The Illinois Central station was burned and telegraph communication destroyed. The telephone building also was burned. Wire communication had not been restored late tonight.

TWO HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

Fort Worth, July 8.—Two heat prostrations, one fatal, occurred here this afternoon. T. P. Kinsey, a real estate dealer, was stricken and died shortly after reaching home. Louis Campbell of Tamaroa, Ill., fell at Sixth and Main streets, overcome. He may recover. Private thermometers registered as high as 108.

TO INSPECT PACKERS

MEAT INSPECTION CRITICISM
LEADS TO ACTION BY SECRE-TARY OF AGRICULTURE.

Wants Actual Conditions in Plants Throughout Country—Improvement of Service Wanted.

Washington, July 8.—Meat packing establishments throughout the country are to be subjected to searching inspections by well known experts selected by the secretary of agriculture from outside of the government service. This step follows criticism of federal meat inspection from various sources and Secretary Houston announced today that its object was to increase the efficiency of the service
and to foster public confidence.

Dr. W. T. Sedgwick, professor of bacteriology and sanitary engineering
in the Massachusetts institute of technology is to investigate plants in Massachusetts and Connecticut; Dr. V. A.
Moore, professor of pathology at Cornell University, will go to Philadelphia,
New York, Buffalo and Pittsburgh; Dr.
J. A. Connaway of the Missouri Agricultural college to Kansas City, St.
Louis and St. Joseph, Mo., and the National Stock Yards, Ill.

"It is my desire," said the secretary in his instructions to the experts,
"that you report to me fully and frankly the conditions as you find them at the various packing establishments, together with such recommendations looking to the improvement of the service as in your judgment
may seem best."

In a statement announcing the plan,
Mr. Houston said:
"This new inspection will in no way supersede or lessen the work being done by the bureau of animal industry. The idea is simply to have the inspection and regulatory work check-ed up by competent authorities who will report directly to the secretary."

Welsh Bill Not Defeated.

London, July 8.—A motion to reject
the Welsh disestablishment bill was defeated tonight in the house of commons by a vote of 347 to 244. The bill
then passed its third reading.

KUHNS BOTH RESIGN OFFICES

Quit Other Institutions—Financial Circles in Settled Shape—Small Runs on Banks.

Pittsburg, July 8.—To the decisive
statement of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, issued last night, is attributed the restoration of almost normal conditions in financial Pittsburg tonight,
despite the closing of the doors of the First Second national bank yesterday.
The continued, somewhat of reserved one of the strongest in the country.

While the situation was tense in the financial world yesterday and little information as to possible developments was obtainable, the flat statement of facts of the secretary served to develop an over-night optimism that grew as the day advanced. The closing of the First Second was naturally followed by the suspension of its affiliated bank, the First National of Mc-Adams, and the appointment of receivers for the banking house of J. S.
and W. S. Kuhn (inc.), whose principals were the majority stockholders of both institutions, and a like action with the American Waterworks and Guaranty companies, an enterprise
fostered by the Kuhn interests.

Another Kuhn interest which was affected, the Pittsburg Bank for Savings, suffered somewhat from the complication, a run being started on it yesterday, chiefly by small depositors.
The continued, somewhat of reserved early today, but appeared to abate as the day wore on.

Crowds Kept Back.
Crowds assembled about the bank building and the sidewalk about the building was roped off with mounted policemen placing their horses within the lines on the sidewalk. The people were forced outside the ropes into the middle of the street. The crowds were made up mostly of curious spectators.
The small groups of depositors that entered the bank were promptly paid $50 upon demand, as on yesterday,
and required to give the legal notice
of thirty, sixty or ninety days to withdraw other amounts above stated figures. Yesterday $57,000 was withdrawn from the bank, while deposits were $27,000. Today's figures in this relation were not obtainable, but it is assured that the withdrawals today were under yesterday's figures.

Kuhn Resigns Presidency.
About noon the announcement was made that J. S. Kuhn, the president, and W. S. Kuhn, the vice president, had resigned, and that W. J. Jones, the former secretary and treasury of the bank, had been elected president.

occasion in the last twenty-two years,
when it was 106. Dr. Block said last night that he sees no hope for a change yet. The cool breeze at night

ENGINEER GOT "HIS" "SLIPS ONE OVER" ON REPUBLICANS

After Years Engine Went Into Ditch. Remarkable Test of Earth Liquid Followed.

Forty years is a long time to pull an engine throttle, but that is the record of Passenger Engineer C. W. Clarke, of the Katy. His home and headquarters are at Smithville. There are few Central Texas railroad men better known in the ranks than he.

"Every engineer gets his at some time or other," is an old saying. In train service, and a few years ago Mr. Clarke got "his." It was not as serious as it might have been. His train was wrecked and the veteran throttle man received hurts to his hip and back. From these he recovered with the exception that rheumatism resulted and caused him great suffering.

"Some of the boys told me about this earth liquid Vitalitas; that it would knock the rheumatism and other things, and I tested it. It is one of Nature's greatest blessings. It has not only cured my rheumatism, but has made me feel almost a boy again. My son is taking it for stomach trouble and malaria and it is doing the work for him, too. Two bottles cured me. I am glad to recommend it."

Vitalitas is no patent medicine. It is just a nature product, without any alcohol or dope of any kind in it. It cleanses the liver and the entire system, removing all toxic poisons and putting vitality into every weakened organ and function. It removes the cause of rheumatism, of indigestion, catarrh, nervous debility, impotency, bowel troubles, blood disorders, including eczema. It is guaranteed. Sample Vitalitas today at the display at the Powers-Kelly Drug Co. (Advertisement.)

ATTORNEY GENERAL COMPLETES INVESTIGATION OF PACIFIC COAST UNION.

Washington, July 8.—Attorney General McReynolds has practically finished his investigation of the telephone union on the Pacific coast and soon will determine whether the government shall prosecute the Bell interests on charges of attempting to monopolize the long distance telephone business or of independents in Washington, California and other far western states.

C. J. Smyth, special assistant to Mr. McReynolds, has reported the results of his extensive investigation of the situation.

This investigation has no connection with the inquiry into the general telephone situation by the Interstate Commerce commission, inaugurated at the request of former Attorney General Wickersham.

SIMMONS GETS DRAFT OF OBJECTIONS TO NEW DEMOCRATIC TARIFF BILL.

IS PORING OVER ANALYSIS

Senate Majority Leaders Study Plans of War Republicans Will Wage. Goes to Printer Today.

Washington, July 8.—Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, turned a trick on republican leaders today when he got his hands on a lengthy analysis of the democratic tariff bill, which had been prepared under direction of Senator Smoot, pointing out what the republicans claim are serious defects in the measure. Senator Smoot delayed for a month the introduction of the analysis despite the insistence by Senator Simmons that it be presented.

On the last day of the caucus, when the republicans were assured the democrats were through with the bill, Senator Smoot consented to send the document in to the printer. But the democrats have not yet printed their bill and have a day or two to make corrections, and laugh at their opponents inasmuch as Smoot will not begin until next week.

Is Studying Objections. Knowing that the republican document might contain valuable pointers, Senator Simmons directed the finance subcommittee to go over their schedules today, while he pored over the Smoot analysis to check up with the subcommittee tomorrow.

Senator Simmons heard some weeks ago that republican leaders had cautioned Senator Smoot to hold back the analysis.

"Don't send it in yet," they urged. "It will give us away." Then the finance committee chairman determined to lay in wait for the document and today he pointed out to be fore it went to the printing office. He found the result of Senator Smoot's careful labors of a month, aided by a corps of experts and assistants. He said some of the analysis points out errors that could be corrected, but that much of the document was found to be argument.

The bill probably will not go to the printer until tomorrow night, as the subcommittee still are checking up for corrections. Meanwhile Senator Simmons is completing the committee report on the measure.

by tenacious resistance and counter attacks from Moros rushing on troops with bayonets and hurling spears at the storming lines.

Officers' Control Admirable. "The control of troops by the officers was admirable, thus preventing a greater number of casualties.

"The enemy was completely defeated and all strongholds were finally taken. None of the Moros would surrender. Some escaped, but the remainder were killed, including Amil and his principal lieutenants, during the engagements.

"Our mountain guns were dragged up the mountain by block and tackle, finally reaching commanding positions and rendered material assistance. Apparently officers and men behaved without exception with admirable determination and courage, though constantly on duty five days and nights, with little rest and exposed to torrential rains.

"The district commander has commended Captain Taylor A. Nichols and Captain George Charlton of the Philippine scouts and First Lieutenant Edward H. Rackley of the same organization for conspicuous courage and leadership.

"Brig. Gen. Pershing personally planned and conducted the Bataan operations, commanding the forces in person and sharing all hardships and dangers of the troops. He had been subjected to much criticism because of patient negotiations, forbearance and efforts to avoid a resort to fighting, but succeeded in avoiding unnecessary injury to non-combatants and minimized casualties in his own command."

WONDERFUL DRUG THAT STIMULATES GROWTH OF HAIR

And Revives Pigment-forming Cells That Give Hair its Natural Growth.

Hardly any of us are entirely free from dandruff or other scalp affections. Millions of us, so long as the trouble is slight, do little or nothing to cure the affection. Other millions are trying to do something, but getting no results, by applying all sorts of fancy colored and fancy named hair "tonics." You are not likely to get much benefit if any, by using any preparation that does not contain the one known drug that positively stimulates the growth of hair. The safe and sure way is to mix your own tonic or go to a reliable druggist and have him mix it for you. Here is a simple formula: 6 ozs. ordinary bay rum, 2 ozs. ordinary Lavender Compound, 1/2 drachm. Menthol Crystals. If you choose, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. Apply to the scalp with finger tips, night and morning, to destroy dandruff, to stop falling hair, to cleanse and beautify the hair, and to stimulate the growth of the hair. This formula is recommended to stimulate the growth of the hair even in cases of complete baldness. If your hair is prematurely gray, try it and see if it will not make the pigment-forming cells active enough to completely restore the natural color. This formula contains no dye or artificial coloring matter, but is designed to make nature produce the natural color in the natural way. Any druggist can supply you with the ingredients or mix the tonic for you. (Advertisement.)

LAMAR UNFOLDS STORY

"Oh, no," the witness said, with a show of embarrassment.

Senator Cummins said he could understand the attitude of most men on the sugar question, but was greatly surprised to see an American trying to secure free sugar because it would benefit Cuban planters. Westcott admitted that was his principal object. He said he never expected a large fee from the conduct of the proposed campaign.

The committee room was filled all day long with members of the senate and house.

Wm. Whitman of Boston, one of the men interested in wool and under subpoena, will take the stand tomorrow morning before the senate committee.

Lamar's Life on Trial.

Lamar took the stand at his own request to make a "statement" taking up the recital of the motives back of his relations with Edward Lauterbach.

to realize perfectly that my life and character are on trial," he began, arguing that his testimony and Lauterbach's had shown they were not engaged in any effort to get money from J. P. Morgan and company or other interests.

"I'll tell you what my motive was," said Lamar. "It was either to force these men to recognize the injustice of their attitude toward Lauterbach and myself or force them to come out into the open with the charges of blackmail they had circulated in New York for years against both of us. Ledyard and his associates had ruined many men."

"I determined they should not ruin me."

Lamar said he knew Louis Cass Ledyard was trying to "trip" him when he began telephoning in the name of Representative Palmer, and then he determined to fix up a "kame" or Ledyard to "force the financial people into the open."

Voice Shakes With Emotion. Frequently Lamar's voice shook with apparent emotion. His choice of adjectives in speaking of various Wall street men led senators to interrupt his statement frequently. Whenever the committee disapproved of something he said, Lamar immediately agreed with the objector, to the amusement of the audience.

The committee decided to hold Lamar strictly to their questions. He testified he had told Lauterbach that Senator Stone had authorized him to make certain representations to the Morgan firm and had told Lauterbach that Senator Stone said he represented Speaker Clark.

Lauterbach had testified yesterday that all his information about Senator Stone and Speaker Clark came from Lamar.

Lamar insisted his only object was to bring about "just such a situation as this investigation."

"I am the one villain in Wall street," said Lamar bitterly. "All the rest are actuated by the highest motives and possess the highest ideals."

He declared the whole thing was a "major Wall street operation traveling on parallel lines," and insisted that he was "after" Ledyard, Cravath, Evans, Lovett and the "Morgan steel trust, Union Pacific and other interests" and wanted to force them to an open attack.

"It was a favorite method of mine for producing an explosion when I wanted one," he added.

The $2,000,000 Forgery. Lamar testified that his charges of an $2,000,000 forgery on the Union Pacific books, emphatically denied by lawyers for the company at the time he made them, were founded on a "manual" and Thomas Gibson, a New York financial writer. He had discussed with Lauterbach making the charges public before the lobby committee. The witness testified also of impersonating Chairman McCombs of the Democratic national committee and Chairman Hill of the Republican national committee.

Senator Cummins wanted to know if Lauterbach asked for an explanation of Lamar's plans which involved Lauterbach's honor.

"The question of honor was not considered; it was entirely a Wall street operation," returned the witness. "The committee tried to bring out whether Lamar had any stock in the steel corporation about the time the resolution was introduced or held any Union Pacific or Southern Pacific stock now."

Wall Street Frame of Mind. Lamar described "W. S. street frame of mind" as "where the thing to do was to win as long as nothing criminal was done."

"Were you in the Wall street frame of mind February 8 when you telephoned to Mr. Ledyard?" asked Senator Reed. "I was," Lamar replied. "When you telephoned Chairman Hill?" "That was Wall street at its best," Lamar replied. "Have you delivered your testimony in the Wall street frame of mind?" "That's an entirely different matter and I have to face my soul's salvation, and I am under oath. I'm through with this game."

Wool People Worked. S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association, told the committee how the wool people worked to keep a duty on wool. He said the association represented almost all the sheep men in the United States and that he spent much time in Washington.

His association, the witness said, expended on money on the tariff, except for his personal expenses here and his total account "chargeable to the tariff" had been $500 since April.

The wool growers, McClure explained, did not get out "literature," though some letters had been sent to Senators and Congressmen. He said the association collected about $7,200 for the first six months of the year; had a membership of 42,000 and had never co-operated with the woolen manufacturers. W. L. Bass, a retired sugar planter from San Domingo, told the committee his occupation was "trying to free the United States government from the grasp of the American Sugar Refining company." He said he was not working for any interests, but that he had common cause with sugar men from Cuba, San Domingo and Porto Rico.

"Since 1902," he said, "I have received two contributions of $100. I pay my own expenses."

Can't Prosecute Lamar. Washington, July 8.—There is no federal law under which David I. Lamar could be prosecuted for impersonating congressmen over the telephone, according to the view of department of justice officials.

Mr. Geo. Dole Wadley President Southern States Cotton Corporation Returns From Europe

Announces That All Arrangements Have Been Made to Finance the Cotton for 1913.

Only Remains for the Cotton Grower to Do His Part to Make 15c Cotton a Certainty.

The arrival of Mr. George Dole Wadley, president Southern States Cotton Corporation, from Europe is an event of unusual importance to the entire South, carrying with it the assurance that all the arrangements have been made for financing the cotton under the plan of the corporation. Mr. Wadley stated:

"I found no difficulty in reaching people who were not only able but willing to undertake this business. The point to be settled was the amount of financing which would be necessary. My proposition was that they enter into a firm contract with me on the part of the Southern States Cotton Corporation for financing five hundred thousand bales of cotton, that they were to give me a supplementary paper which would state upon the fulfillment of the contract by the Southern States Cotton Corporation they would finance any additional amount of cotton on the same terms which the Southern States Cotton Corporation might be able to deliver. This contract was accepted, duly signed by us, and certified to by the American consul."

"After the contract had been signed one of the gentlemen who is party to it stated to me that he believed when the Southern States Cotton Corporation had delivered the five hundred thousand bales of cotton, and that the world knew positively that we were able to finance the cotton in any amount there would be no necessity for any larger loans, although it might be prepared to make them; that he believed the security of cotton under the plan of the Southern States Cotton Corporation the best collateral for loans of anything he knew."

"As a result of these negotiations I believe that the Southern people can now secure the value for their cotton and it only remains for them to sell to the corporation under the terms of the contract their cotton in any amount. If this is done in sufficient quantities to establish the price of 15 cents per pound, the cotton raisers of the South have in the future nobody to blame but themselves."

bank, had been made president, with A. N. Voegtli, former assistant to Mr. Jones, as secretary and treasurer, while L. M. Plummer, a director, was made vice president. From the time of this announcement during the rest of the banking hours the run perceptibly abated.

Expected statements as to the American Waterworks and Guaranty company were not forthcoming today, the delay being attributed to the delay in the appointment of the fourth receiver which Federal Judge Orr announced should be a man having no business connections with the Kuhn's. Several business men have refused the appointment.

Receiver Assembles Assets. No developments were announced from the First-Second national bank today and none was expected until the receiver, C. C. Murray, has had an opportunity to assemble the assets of the bank and has been enabled to ascertain its liabilities.

Chief interest now centers in the step that may be taken as to an investigation of criminal liability. The United States district attorney, John H. Jordan, through whom the first step in this direction would be taken, said today he had received no notice from Washington along this line, but that it was possibly a little early for the officials to have had opportunity to decide upon any course.

So secure did the members of the clearing house feel in the stability of conditions generally that a meeting, which had been scheduled for this afternoon, to consider the financial situation generally was called off and offers of assistance from New York, Chicago and St. Louis were declined.

Investigation to Follow. Washington, July 8.—Secretary McAdoo will ask Attorney General McReynolds within a few days to investigate alleged irregularities in the conduct of the First-Second National Bank of Pittsburg, which closed its doors yesterday. The secretary today definitely decided to refer the situation to the department of justice and is now engaged in the collection of all the facts connected with the management of the big bank to prepare the attorney general for an inquiry designed to develop whether there was any violation of law in connection with the failure.

John Skilton, Williams, assistant secretary of the treasury, who superintended the closing of the bank, reported today that the institution had been "freely mismanaged," necessitating a reference of its condition to the department of justice.

Receivership Satisfactory. Thomas P. Kane, acting controller of the currency, by long distance telephone late today advised Secretary McAdoo that the receivership was progressing satisfactorily and reiterated that the general banking condition in Pittsburg was sound. Treasury officials continued not only confident that there would be no more trouble, but emphasized the belief that the closing of the First-Second actually had improved conditions in Pittsburg by removing a doubtful element from the financial system.

The latest reports to the treasury department indicate that the losses of the First-Second may reach $5,500,000, because the entire capital and surplus of the bank now seem to have been wiped out. These figures were accompanied by assurances from officers of the bank that the depositors, whose claims total about $38,000,000, probably would be paid in full, or nearly in full through realization of the bank's assets.

C. C. Murray, receiver of the bank, is analyzing the list of assets. Secretary McAdoo was advised today, and is expected soon to be prepared to indicate their value.

MRS. R. V. MCCLAIN HAS FAMILY REUNION

For several days Mrs. R. V. McClain of North Fifth street, has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. C. M. Smith, and her niece, Mrs. Gould Baker of Pittsburgh, Kansas. Joining the household has been another sister, Mrs. J. H. Price, of Ballinger. Other guests have come from time to time, until the week has been filled with family pleasure.

MRS. HUDMAN TAYLOR HOSTESS FOR THIS AFTERNOON

In bespeaking the Merry Matrons for an afternoon in her home, Mrs. Hudman Taylor named an honor guest in Mrs. Gould Baker of Pittsburgh, Kansas, who is on a visit to Mrs. R. V. McClain until Sunday. Mrs. Taylor has extended special invitations and announced the game of forty-two for her diversion. This pleasant gathering occurs this afternoon after 4 o'clock.

CARDS OF INVITATION WERE RECEIVED BY MAIL

In the Tuesday post cards were received by the friends of the host and hostesses-elect which read:

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Quinius at home
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Quinius Tuesday, July fifteenth nineteen hundred and thirteen 1801 Sanger avenue 8 to 11 o'clock.
This is the formal welcome to the son of the household and his bride.

A GARDEN PARTY TO BE WITH MRS. W. H. POOL

Mrs. W. H. Pool Miss Pool at home
Thursday, July the tenth nineteen hundred thirteen

Mrs. J. W. Harrell
Garden party, 5:30 to 7:30.
This occasion will present as a young lady the first daughter of Professor and Mrs. Pool, at the same time introduces as brides the Mesdames Trantham and Harrell.

A FIRST EXPERIENCE FOR ARMSTRONG PARTY

Quoted from the home message of Mrs. N. E. Boggess is the first foreign experience of Mrs. Boggess with the Armstrong party. The steamer, anchored at Madeira. In the language of Mrs. Boggess, "I never saw more luxuriant vegetation. We rode in the hulloos carts, and ascended the mountain in a smoky little train. The church you may always depend upon visiting a church on European soil, and came down via the toboggan route, to spend a short while browsing among the wonderful shops. We are looking forward to Gibraltar tomorrow." To this Mrs. Boggess adds an order directing the sheriff to deliver Charlton to the Italian authorities "forthwith."

MRS. SADIE McDONALD GIVES SUMMER PLANS

Friends here in the girlhood home are always interested in the movements of the Mesdames Sadie McDonald and Robert Downman. They carried longer than usual in their New Orleans home, went to New York City for a short while and there made summer plans. For the first time in many seasons they will have a Southern summer. Mrs. Downman will maintain a cottage at White Sulphur Springs, that famed old resort of antebellum belles and beaux. Mr. Downman from there will give personal supervision to his palatial home, not yet finished in Virginia. The family is more quiet than usual since Mrs. Downman is not yet accepting social invitations, owing to her bereavement. When the season ends a second visit will be made to New York City, and that will be followed by the return home to New Orleans for another gay season.

SUGGEST NAMES FOR FLOATS. A TAKING IDEA COMES

In the coming of the cotton Palace season is it not timely to have something ready for novelty and for the unique with the great exhibition? The unexpected is often more acceptable than the tried and true. This is in anticipation of trades display day, the day when all our merchants will be out with floats, suggestive of their wares. Somewhere, at some time, we saw the idea of working into the advertisement something classical and not fully representative of the goods. Why not the women set their brains to work and from them evolve something unique for the husband's exhibit. The idea is to work out an appropriate tableau, something classic or literary, and at the same time preserve the distinctiveness of the business.

MRS. HELEN A. CONGER SENDS HOME MESSAGE

It was interesting to receive an account of the wanderings of Mrs. Helen A. Conger during the many months in which she has been absent from her friends and family here. Indeed, Mrs. Conger calls herself a "wanderer." She spent several months with her children in Arizona and from there went for a sojourn in California. She is now in Portland, Oregon, and writes of her foremost enjoyment in the magnificent rose gardens. Mrs. Conger says Portland is rightly named the Rose City. She has enjoyed the scenic trip on the Columbia river. Intellectually, Mrs. Conger is hearing some of the wonderfully good things which are continuous in the progressive life of the Pacific slope. The last gathering is the World's Christian Citizenship conference. Speakers from many countries were present. Indeed, their ideas were concentrated almost into all which the world is doing along the line of making Christian men and women, regardless of doctrinal teachings. Mrs. Conger's criticism of high-spirited enthusiasm is given one of the women on the program. She spoke on "A Fatal Silence" as representative of the Young Women's Christian Association. No word is said concerning a probable return to Waco by Mrs. Conger.

A Blessing to Victims of "Sore Feet" Agony

The following is said to be the surest and quickest cure known to science for all foot ailments: "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of warm water. Soak the feet in this for fully fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the sore parts. The effect is really wonderful. All soreness goes instantly; the feet feel delightful. Corns and callouses can be peeled right off. It gives immediate relief for sore bunions, sweaty, smelly and aching feet. A twenty-five cent box of Calocide is said to be sufficient to cure the worst feet. It works through the pores and removes the cause of the trouble. Don't waste time on uncertain remedies. Any druggist has Calocide compound in stock or he can get it in a few hours from his wholesale house." (Advertisement.)

A MORNING WEDDING IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Just as dainty as the winsome bride herself were the appointments under the altar of the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday morning. These were for the giving of heart and hand from Miss Nannette Howells to J. F. McGrath. Every detail was that of simplicity in celebration. And yet many were the evidences that friends to all which the world is doing along the line of making Christian men and women, regardless of doctrinal teachings. Mrs. Conger's criticism of high-spirited enthusiasm is given one of the women on the program. She spoke on "A Fatal Silence" as representative of the Young Women's Christian Association. No word is said concerning a probable return to Waco by Mrs. Conger.

Mr. McGrath has been in the city from New York not more than a year, but this time has established his business integrity and gathered a coterie of friends. He has in readiness a furnished cottage near the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howells, on West Columbus. Following the few days now being enjoyed in San Antonio, his cottage will be occupied by Mr. McGrath present the couple's husband to the friends with whom she has lived since her early childhood.

For the marriage hour, which was 10 o'clock in the morning, the altar was set with refreshing green, and the pure white daisies clustered in jars. A Miss Annie Lewis, who was the organ music, while Miss Mazie Turner, with Sidney Davis, was the only attendant. The bride wore her going-away suit of blue, with an unusually jaunty little taffeta hat. Her bride's flowers, the natural valley lily, was pinned at the corsage. Miss Turner wore a lighter tone blue, with hat, and carried pink bridesmaid buds. The nearest friends of the household were with Mr. and Mrs. Howells and the sister, Mrs. Bessie Ficklen, in the preferred seats. The Reverends C. T. Caldwell and J. J. Grier conducted the service. Immediate passage was taken by automobile to begin the wedding journey. It was all simple, yet all full of the sentiment of this occasion which means so much in the life of this young man and woman.

Society Notes.

We note something in Denver high life which is very appropriate to Waco. It is this: a matron about to leave for the summer is at home in an informal tea to all her friends without cards of invitation. In this way all friends were privileged to call and bid au revoir.

A new term is coming into wedding parlance, and we like it. Somehow we never did take to the bride who was "presented" at the altar by her father. This sounds much more elegant.

In cooler climates brides of mid-summer are using the brilliant peonies for room decoration at their weddings. Speaking of peonies, Mrs. Edward Rattan has written to a friend that the blooms which border the cliff walls of her Massachusetts summer home measure an even eight inches across.

Speaking of flowers, we note that the gladioli has appeared in our florist windows. By the way, how do you pronounce them, gladioli? At a fashionable wedding recently the church chimes pealed gladly to announce the entrance of the bride party into the church. Why not? We toll for the church member who is taken to the church for the last and first. Why not send out the peals of gladness to tell of the church member who is entering the church for the happy moment in her life? The chimes, if used, also mingle with the full organ strains as the bridal party passes from the church.

Miss Dorothy Finlay of South Fourth has succumbed to a trying case of fever. She has been ill for more than a week.

It is not infrequent that an author outwits himself. He makes a sensation with his first effort, which so far encourages him that a second is attempted with much weaker result. It seems that Winston Churchill is not one of this ilk. He has written several strong pieces of fiction, and his last, "The Inside of the Cup," is even more popular than his very much sought "Consolation." The only deterioration is that, avowed as he was to name his every book with a title "C," he seems to have run short of titles.

Company K Hikes For Camp Mabry on Thursday, July 24

Company K, the local military company recently organized and which is a member of the Texas National Guard, will leave Waco Sunday morning at 11 o'clock for Camp Mabry, near Austin, to participate in the state encampment. The company will return Thursday night, July 24.

The Waco company was organized May 12 and has not yet drawn equipment. Men will receive their uniforms and guns on arrival at Austin. Captain F. A. Weather, First Lieutenant Frank Wright and Second Lieutenant Charles Posse are the officers of the company. The only non-commissioned officer that has been named is Edgar Rack, first sergeant. The others will be appointed the day of the start for Camp Mabry. Fifty-five men and the three officers will take the trip.

The companies of Texas have been divided into four classes by Captain Henry S. Wagner of the United States army. The local company has not yet been classed.

Ranks and Divisions.

The following are the different ranks into which the organizations are divided: Class A—Those companies considered excellent military organizations, fit for field service, and so reported to the war department.

Class B—Companies not sufficiently qualified to entitle them to a Class A designation, but which are capable of development.

Class C—Companies which will require a considerable effort on the part of officers and men before they are efficient military organizations. In this class the effort on the part of the company commanders will have to be considerable if the organizations are to be continued in service.

Class D—Companies not worth the cost of maintenance and mustered out of the service for inefficiency.

How Companies Stand.

The companies taking the first five positions are: Company A, Third Infantry, Houston, D. J. Matthews, captain; Company K, Third Infantry, Orange, A. R. Sholars, captain; Company B, Fourth Infantry, Fort Worth, Ben Smith, captain; Company C, Fourth Infantry, Sherman, J. T. Wakefield, captain; Company M, Fourth Infantry, Gainesville, William H. Tyler, lieutenant.

Although cables had preceded, the first personal mail from the A. J. Armstrong party reached Waco friends with Tuesday. Among these were cards from the Mesdames Mary Manton and N. E. Boggess, written on the passage and mailed at Madeira. These left all happy and enjoying mid-ocean.

HAS HE THE COURAGE?

Is the attorney general of Texas big enough, manly enough; has he the patriotism and the courage to look at the testimony in the suit of the State against the Magnolia Petroleum Company et al with an eye single to the welfare of the State, with an unprejudiced heart and a desire above a fee? Is he man enough to rise above little things and prove that his citizenship is of that order which the people of Texas have a right to expect in a man who has been thus honored?

The attorney general has filed suit against a large industrial concern in this State, alleging a violation of the anti-trust law. All the testimony that can possibly bear on the case and a vast amount that has no relevancy but may be expected and was expected to prejudice the court against the defendants, has been adduced and is now reduced to writing and is available for study and careful deliberation.

Did the attorney general file this suit because he believed that the anti-trust law was being violated and that an injustice was being done the people of the State? If he did he must give heed to the testimony obtained by the special commissioner. Every transaction, every plan, every movement of every official manager, employee or attorney of the Magnolia company has been revealed. The defendants have made a clean showing. They have aided the State in its investigation. No obstacle of any kind has been placed in the way of the investigators. Not only has every particle of evidence which could be obtained been put into the record, but the opinions, prejudices, arguments, innuendo, sarcasm and personalities of the prosecutors have been interwoven into the record most adroitly. And with all that there is not the slightest shadow of testimony to show that the defendants have violated the law, as we view it.

What will the attorney general of Texas do about it now? Will he permit this suit to drag along and burden the people of Texas with the further expense of a trial? Or will he have the courage and the manliness to say that he was sincere in hunting a violator of the law; that he has become convinced he is on the wrong trail and abandon the search? Or if he persists in maintaining the suit will he do the people of Texas the service of expressing wherein, as shown by the evidence, the defendants have violated the law? The testimony is open to the people, all of it that was worth publishing has been published, the people know what is in the record and if there was any useful purpose to be served in taking this testimony it was that the suit might be dismissed now or tried in October, according as the testimony indicated the likelihood of a conviction. There is not, we think, a man in the State who has followed this testimony who will admit there is evidence on which to base a conviction. The ownership of the shares in the defendant companies is in persons who are also owners of shares in Standard Oil company. It has not been shown and it never can be shown that the owners of shares in the Texas companies control the companies. To the contrary, it shows that the control of the Magnolia Petroleum company and the Corsicana Petroleum company is independent; that the local managers and officers have absolute control; that there has been, not only no combination in restraint of trade, but the most bitter competition, the highest order of rivalry and the most spirited effort to gain business; that there are three other oil companies doing business in Texas which are getting vastly more business than the defendants in this suit; that these defendants have been forced to do business at a loss in order to gain even the amount of business they have carried on.

An identical situation is found in Missouri and the supreme court of that State has met the issue manfully, equitably and sensibly. In 1905 Mr. Attorney General Hadley instituted quo warranto proceedings against the Standard Oil company, of Indiana, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company and the Republic Oil Company. In 1908 each defendant was fined $50,000 and the Standard and Republic were ousted from the State. On June 28 the supreme court suspended the ouster decree issued in 1908 and allowed the Standard Oil Company, of Indiana, to resume business in Missouri so long as it obeys the laws and otherwise behaves itself.

The decision of the supreme court in re-admitting the company to do business in the State was based on testimony taken before a special commissioner, to determine whether the Standard had been obeying the anti-trust laws since the court rendered its decree of ouster in 1908. The Standard showed that it had surrendered its stock in the Waters-Pierce company and that its intention is actively to compete with that company and others for business in Missouri.

Mr. Attorney General Baker, of Missouri, developed the fact that the Standard, of Indiana, is largely owned by Mr. John D. Rockefeller and other stockholders in the New Jersey corporation, but he failed to show that they are in control of the company's affairs. In fact, testimony was offered to the effect that the company's management is independent.

Mr. Justice W. W. Graves, who wrote the opinion, said in one clause thereof:

The stay and suspension herein is on condition that the said Standard Oil Company of Indiana shall faithfully obey and observe, in the conduct of its business, all the laws of this State, and especially the anti-trust laws of this State.

After reciting how the suspension order may be vacated by proof of violation of the laws, the court further says, in the presentation of proof of violation that

In all such investigations the proof taken shall be limited to matters and things transpiring since the date of this order.

It is now up to the attorney general of Texas to determine what he is going to do about the Magnolia suit. He has the evidence before him. It is before the people of the State and the people will know by his action whether he is prosecuting the oil companies out of a sincere desire to enforce the laws or whether he is employing the laws to create legal activities through which enormous fees are derived by his office and others who may have influenced him to engage in this prosecution.

WET-BLANKET ALL ALARM.

"The recent reports of the National banks to the comptroller of the currency show a sound and strong condition throughout the country. The failure of the Pittsburg bank is simply a sporadic case of unsound banking and has no other significance."

This from the statement of the secretary of the treasury on the First-Second National bank of Pittsburg and allied bankers' and business concerns' suspension of business is the sort of wet-blanketing the situation calls for; all like situations, and it is most probable there will be others, call for like treatment in the coming months. All know, of course, that in the present condition of political alignment in government and administration activities there is a powerful disposition to accentuate and exaggerate every large business unsettling of this sort; from disproportionate emphasis on remote causes to downright falsifying will political comment and adverse business influence dilate on these occurrences. In a word, none has any doubt the desire of those most bitterly opposed to the program of the Democratic party being effectuated at Washington, to foster the impression that the program already is having a most detrimental effect on business conditions generally, is well fed by such incidents as the closing of the big bank in Pittsburg.

The government and the honest press must do all in their power to discredit, both by facts and by ridicule and exposure of motives, every attempt to arouse general alarm that is made in connection with these "sporadic" business disturbances. Mr. McAdoo has the evidence to present the nation that these failures were the result of nothing more or less than unsound banking; this sort occurs in the fattest years, and it is fortunate that in nearly a majority of such cases criminal prosecutions follow for violations of the banking laws. Finances of the National banks, we are given every assurance, are wholly sound. Failures caused by the improper use of funds must not be permitted to be used by those with a political or business scheme to promote, in opposition to the reforms to be promulgated by the Wilson administration, as arguments in depreciation of those reforms. Mr. McAdoo is to be commended for his immediate, decisive statement. These alarming affairs must be dealt with coolly and uncompromisingly, and put in their proper category before the public.

There is more money in the banks than ever before. Depositors of much or little need take no "warning" from this Pittsburg closing, or from other suspensions of the same sort; there is no "warning" in this, for there will always be business disturbance from unsound method and improper manipulation. That is a very different condition from a money stringency—and there is no such stringency as far as concerns any affect on the safety of deposits.

THE COTTON PALACE WILL BE OPEN SUNDAYS, OF COURSE.

If Waco must again read and hear the rignarole concerning the operation of the Texas Cotton Palace on the three Sundays that fall within its accustomed time of annual exposition, by all means let it be now that the old controversy is rehashed.

When this city's, and Central Texas's, best season of hospitality to all the State is in progress let there be no more of these denunciations, pulpit or otherwise, that are detrimental but resultless of their purpose. The great majority of people in this region want the Cotton Palace and all its features to be "run full blast" every day of the sixteen, and "full blast" these will be run, the directory assures us—for which our thanks. Last November we were treated to the usual mass of invective and diatribe for that the "war-path" was a warpath on Sunday as well as on Saturday. Unlike charity, we prefer to see "black eyes" to a city's interests administered by those who dwell away from home, but the criticism last year was home-made.

No more of this, we beg. We understand thoroughly what underlies these protests of local pastors; we admire sincerity but not contracted casuistry. The Cotton Palace is a State fair, a public exposition, permitted by statute to operate all its attractions on Sunday. Waco would be unique if it closed the doors of such an enterprise on Sunday, against the wishes of tens of thousands. We hope we will not be thus unique. The amusement is clean and reasonably restrained. But all this is known; it's old. Let's air our grievances at home and have done with them before we assume to act as hosts to Texas, and present a decent domestic front. Let's limit the time for objections and criticism, within, to September 1, say.

UNTRAMMELED EDITORIAL POLICY.

We quote from an address to the Rotary club, of this city, by Mr. W. V. Crawford, advertising manager for one of the largest business houses in Texas, on "Advertising as Conducive to Successful Business":

Some persons display a woeful lack of judgment in placing advertising. You should judge each advertising medium on its merits. Frequently do we hear of a merchant who won't advertise in a certain paper because he doesn't like the editor, or his policy, or his politics, or his dog, or some other attribute or possession. If that editor's newspaper will help your business, that is the only point, and it is the poorest kind of poor judgment to stay out of its columns. You are simply allowing profits to run through a hole of your own cutting in your own pocket. Whenever the editor arises who can please everybody, then verily the brotherhood of man will be perfect and we can all prepare to occupy our places in that house not built by human hands.

This is one of many sage things in Mr. Crawford's epitome of a big subject. Reading his address in this newspaper, one wishes he had illustrated that point from the view of the advertising manager of a concern that in the very nature of its business must be closely in touch with all interests of the community, and interested in the attitude of its press on matters of public import. He speaks sooth. Indeed, the newspaper with ideas and opinions that are its own is the most valuable advertising medium big business can employ. We honestly believe the day is passed in American newspaperdom when any daily worthy the name of "newspaper" can afford—really afford—to let its news and editorial columns be, in effect, subject to the censorship of its advertising, though not of its circulation, patrons. We believe it is not a good advertising medium that feels compelled to track the views of its most moneyed patrons utterly in matters of general interest from a news standpoint and of public concern from the standpoint of community benefit. The day of submitting "copy" to the judgment of this big advertiser or that, to this political clique or that business organization, on matters not exclusively affecting the conduct of their business, surely is happily over for every worthwhile newspaper.

And it may be said with positiveness that a newspaper takes on added value as an advertising medium when its readers perceive its editorial policy in situations of general concern, and its reports thereon, are not bounded by the desires or prejudices of any man or set of men for "business reasons." Such a newspaper will be blessed with a circulation that grows equally as the instances of what it achieves for the public benefit, increase.

WARNING AGAINST "FAKE CURES."

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis bulletins this statement:

"Within the last five years no less than 500 fraudulent 'cures' for consumption have been tried upon thousands of victims in the United States, and the exploiters of these nostrums have reaped a clear profit of not less than $50,000,000."

This is an estimate of the association. It adds that not less than $20,000,000 is invested in the business of manufacturing and exploiting fake cures for tuberculosis, and that the annual income from these concerns and individuals is $15,000,000, which is "blood money" taken from the ignorant consumptives. Says the bulletin:

Three kinds of consumption cure frauds are distinguished by the association, the first being the "institute" fraud, where a pseudo-hospital or dispensary is established and the wily "doctor" or "professor" administers "treatment" at so much per head. These concerns also carry on a mail order business with great profit. The second group of cures contains over one hundred different kinds of drugs and "patent" devices, any of which may be purchased at a drug store. Usually the consumptive is charged from $1 to $5 for these and the institute "cures" when he can make them up himself in exactly the same form for one to five cents. The third group of "cures" includes home-made remedies which certain self-deluded individuals believe will cure tuberculosis.

Among them are such things as onion, lemon, coal smoke, turpentine, alcohol, dog oil, teas of various kinds and a variety of diets, including goat's meat, clabbered milk and a score other articles. These are not usually advertised for profit, but are usually given publicity in various ways. The consumptive is the most hopeful individual in existence when the question of a cure is suggested. The National association has stated that no specific cure for tuberculosis is discovered, except the well-tried hygienic-dietetic method of fresh air, rest and good food.

While we have no doubt this great charity, humanitarian organization puts its meaning clearly within the understanding of the ignorant consumptive when it publishes broadcast the concluding statement that no specific cure is discovered, providing this unfortunate sufferer can be reached by someone able to present these facts, we think it could achieve incomparably more valuable results if it would direct the bulk of its legislative activity to driving these fake and fakirs from the market. There is the pure food and drugs act, to be sure, which forbids misbranding and false labeling, but this statute is still too widely dishonored in the breach and the druggist, like all the rest of us, is too keenly on the alert for the almighty dollar. The association's exposures of these several fakes might with great good to humanity take more the form of the direct legal attack.

Reciprocity.

(Mart Herald.)
Reciprocity is the word. Marlin boosters about 200 strong are planning to visit Mart Tuesday, July 15. They are scheduled to reach here at 9:45 a. m. and spend 35 minutes in Mart advertising the Marlin Fair, which is billed for July 22, 23, 24 and 25, the week following the Mart Fair. This trip of the Marlin boosters is just a week later than the one our Mart boosters will make to Marlin. Needless to say that the visiting boosters from our neighboring "hot water resort" will receive a cordial welcome in Mart. Our home boosters are too broad-gauged and generous to be other than cordial toward visitors from anywhere. We believe in the doctrine of reciprocity here in Mart, and are glad to vie with our neighboring towns in bettering conditions and developing the community along practical lines, including good roads, the agricultural, stock, poultry and other interests that deserve encouragement. Attention is also called to the fact that the Waco Y. M. C. A. is planning to run an excursion to Mart one day during the fair in recognition of our attitude here toward the big Cotton Palace which Mart patronizes very generously each year at Waco. Come on neighbors and tell us about your good things.

Thursday, July 17, is billed as Waco and Marlin day at the Mart fair, and for whatever consideration our neighbors show, Mart is sure to respond in liberal measure. Our folks believe in "reciprocity" to the extent that they practice it.

Gustine Deserved Better.

To the folks in Gustine the measly ten minutes assigned us by Waco's Booster train looked mighty small and few in the bill. We felt either ignorant or indifferent to the commercial importance of our town. Either condition can be mended and we are sure this bunch of live wires will proceed to take the one stitch in time to save nine.

"HOLY WAR" IN INDIA

SULTAN BEING DEFEATED BY TRIBES—MANY TAKEN PRISONERS.

Muscat Threatened—British Warships Protect English Interests—Rajput Regiment Ordered Out.

Simla, India, July 8.—A holy war was declared today, on the sultan of the independent state of Oman, in southeastern Arabia by Sheikh Abdulla. The tribes who have been fighting the sultan Seyyid Faysal Bin Turke have fought victories in a number of encounters and have taken several of the sultan's strongholds.

They are now threatening Muscat, the capital, a seaport of 60,000 inhabitants.

Three British warships have been sent to Muscat to protect British interests and a regiment of Rajput infantry has been ordered there from India.

Secretary of Agriculture Makes Ruling Relative to New Mexico, Montana and South Dakota.

Washington, July 8.—The secretary of agriculture, under date of July 13, has ordered released from quarantine for scabies, a contagious communicable disease of cattle, the remainder of the states of South Dakota and New Mexico. This releases from quarantine in South Dakota the counties of Lawrence, Pennington, Custer, Fall River, Washington, Shannon, Bennett and Washburn. In New Mexico the quarantine is raised from the following counties: Union, Guadalupe, Quay, Roosevelt, Chavez, Eddy, that portion of Torrance county lying east and south of the El Paso and Rock Island railway, that portion of Lincoln county lying east and south of the El Paso and Northeastern railway.

In Montana, Fergus county is released from quarantine, and in Nebraska, Thomas county is released from quarantine for scabies. This means that the prohibition against shipping cattle from these previously quarantined districts into other sections is now ended.

The same order replaces under quarantine for scabies in the state of Wyoming the newly named and organized counties of Platt, Goshen and Niobrara, and continues under quarantine in Nebraska that portion of Garden county north of the North Platte river, which was formerly part of Deuel county.

Bivouac and Hike Interest Soldiers
Austin, July 8.—Aside from the regular duties at Camp Henry the one feature to which the soldiers are looking forward to with some interest is the hike and bivouac. This will be held the latter part of the week but the exact route has not been announced. Regimental parade was held last evening and during the day the local film company pressed several companies of the troop into service for moving pictures. Troop C has the highest percentage in the rifle shoots but several companies are still shooting over the range.

Want Bishop to Vote on Liquor Question

Bishop, Tex., July 8.—Bishop may have a wet and dry election resulting from the cutting loose of this part of Nueces county from the Kingsville precinct through the organization of Kleberg county, which was perfected about a week ago by the election of a full ticket of county officers. A petition is being circulated in this section asking that an election to decide if liquor may be sold here be called. It is meeting with sharp antagonism.

LET DEAR PUBLIC IN

DEMOCRATS ALMOST COME TO BLOWS IN STORMY CURRENCY BILL CAUCUS.

Strike Snag When Ragsdale Says He Will Have Substitute for Administration Measure.

Washington, July 8.—All sessions of the house banking and currency committee for the federal currency bill will be open to the public. This was agreed upon today by the democratic members after an executive session said to have been marked by lively incidents. Rumor had it that some of the commit-teens almost came to blows, but this was emphatically denied tonight by Chairman Glass.

Over the protest of the chairman and other influential members, the democrats adopted the report of a subcommittee headed by Representative Bulkley of Ohio, recommending that all hearings and all meetings of the committee or subcommittee be open except upon a vote of four-fifths of those present for an executive session. The full committee is expected to ratify this action tomorrow.

Consideration of the administration bill by the democrats of the committee began today, but they struck a snag before a page and a half had been read. Representative Ragsdale of South Carolina announced that he expected to offer a substitute for all parts of the measure relating to district reserve cities.

Y. M. B. L. HAS A BUSY MEETING

LONG SPEECHES BARRED AND ONLY MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE COME UP.

MULTIGRAPH TO BE EXHIBITED

Dates of Convention Cause Trouble. Many Committees Report—Travelers May Visit This City.

For a business session, the general meeting of the Young Men's Business League last night surpassed those that have gone before. A new idea, or rather, the old idea rejuvenated, was put into effect, that of transacting business before the house and hearing detailed reports from the various standing committees.

The usual lengthy and numerous speeches made way for a discussion of reports. These proved interesting and were instructive to the general member, who familiarizes himself with the doings of the officers and directors only through the general meeting.

This question of more business before the general meetings was advanced at a previous meeting. Again last night it was given impetus when I. Friedlander raised the question of the directorate's right to pass on questions concerning the broad policy of the league, naming the board's action in voting to oppose the plan to abolish the differentials on cotton. At a recent meeting the board voted to recommend to the state railroad commission not to abolish the differentials. Mr. Friedlander believed this matter was of such concern that it should have been settled by the membership as a whole at the general meeting. He precipitated considerable argument on his motion to approve the action of the board in this instance, but in all future instances where a similar important question is at stake governing the public policy of the league, it be referred to the general meeting. Members of the directorate and others objected to what they termed binding the hands of the board. After considerable argument, Mr. Friedlander withdrew the motion and substituted a motion to ratify the action of the board. The motion passed.

Chairman W. V. Crawford of the publicity committee reported that an exhibit of the multigraph would be made at the league rooms Thursday and Friday and asked all who could do so to witness the demonstration. The publicity committee is urging that the board purchase such a machine.

N. D. Naman, chairman of the convention committee, reported that within the past six weeks the Ginnery's association, the Hotelkeepers' association and the deaf of the state had met in convention in Waco. He said as a result of the ginnery convention one large ginning concern has since located here.

Mr. Naman recited the difficulty the committee had in getting the dates of conventions and requested the membership to inform the committee of any convention in the state and the dates, that that body might invite the convention for next year to Waco.

He reported that the Travelers' Protective association was to meet in Houston next year and his committee was to invite them to visit Waco. He also said the Texas Title Men's association would be invited to meet here next fall and the optometrists had been invited to meet here and had accepted.

Crate Dalton of the locating and jobbing committee reported his committee was busy with several propositions. In this connection it was stated the committee would take up the matter of locating the Baptist sanitarium.

Rush Berry of the finance committee reported a balance of $18176 in the bank, with bills of $150 outstanding and a paying membership of $50, which gives average receipts of $425 per month.

Dr. R. N. McDaniels of the railroad and interurban committee reported it would have something to make public soon. In this connection a letter was read from Tehuacana, regarding the proposal of citizens of that town to aid in the building of a railroad from Waco to Palestine. The letter stated that the station at Palestine, Texas, was to be built at the intersection of the railroad and the highway, and that the citizens of that town were willing to contribute to the cost of the station.

Report of Secretary H. Hagerdorn on the recent trip he made to Baltimore with the Ad Club delegates was read and approved.

President Frank Trau reported for the committee which went to Austin to help form the business club at that place.

I. Friedlander reported the progress of the arrangement committee on the jubilee to be held next month.

Committees who visited Prairie Hill reported and it was stated a special train was to be run to Mart and also one to Marlin on the occasion of the fair at those places. Dr. Smart asked that a delegation attend the Rockdale fair, which begins today and lasts two days. A. D. Adams, J. M. Clement and Dr. Smart were appointed a committee to work up interest and to get a good delegation for the Rockdale trip.

W. J. Dorsett requested that the league assist in paying the expenses of a delegation from the Waco Motor club, who go to Denver to attend the motorcycle convention, and in return these delegates take along advertising matter. The matter was referred to the advertising committee.

J. M. Clement of the membership committee reported sixteen new members had been secured since the last report.

After adjournment refreshments and cold drinks were served.

that if Mexia will tell the world of the supply of fuel, and will demonstrate it that Mexia can get the factories. Their idea is to keep the wells capped, using what is necessary for the industries of Mexia as at present organized, and add to the supply as fast as new concerns can be located. They believe that if this is done that within a few years Mexia can be a manufacturing center and have a population of between 25,000 and 30,000.

It will cost over $200,000 to get the gas to Waco. That will be the amount necessary to pipe it the forty-three miles, and then will be the problem of distribution to the consumers. It can be distributed at a very low cost—less than 25 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, and it can be used for lighting, heating, cooking and for steam. To distribute it through the mains of the Texas Power and Light company will be easily accomplished if the company will take it over when it is brought here in a pipe line. If the company will not undertake the distribution, it will cost more than a half-million dollars to put in new mains. With the alleys in Waco, it will not be necessary to disturb a paved street to put in the mains, and the saving in the cost to the consumers will be so great that business will come readily to the distributing company and the natural gas will be used to the exclusion of the manufactured article. Mayor Mackey has said that if the city can do so under its charter he is in favor of bond issues to bring the pipe line here, and Commissioner Dollins has endorsed the mayor.

L. Migel Has a Plan.

Louis Migel, treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, has another plan. He believes that a pipe line should be built and the gas offered to the Texas Power and Light company; he suggests that either a bond issue be resorted to for the construction of the pipe line or a company be organized; that when the pipe line is constructed the revenue from all consumers be paid over to a trustee, that the distributing company get nothing for the receipts above the actual expenses that will result under the trusteeship, until the revenue from the gas equals the cost of the pipe line; then the bond issue be paid off with this revenue or the stockholders in the corporation be reimbursed, and that the pipe line then be turned over to the distributing company free of cost, to have as a future asset.

These are some of the suggestions that appear in general discussion at this time. Others may be brought out later, but these opinions are given so they may be in the minds of the people.

Given Cordial Welcome.

When the Waco crowd arrived at Mexia yesterday morning they were received by the entire business citizenship. There was a meeting at the city hall. Julius Nussbaum was master of ceremonies and short talks were made. Ben Smith gave a history of the development of the gas field, and told of the personal work which was done by Blake Smith and Tracey McKenzie in going after and securing the gas. He also welcomed the visitors. Mayor Mackey responded on the part of the visitors. He said that the Waco people had come for a demonstration and he was sure that Waco is ready to do business.

Mayor T. Frank Smith of Mexia also spoke. J. T. Leach, in charge of the gas field, said he could not talk, but could demonstrate. Blake Smith suggested that committees be appointed to discuss the matter.

Visit to the Wells.

The meeting then adjourned to the gas field. There Mr. Leach turned on one well after another, but as they are several miles apart it was necessary to ride from well to well. When the valve is opened the gas comes out with a roar. Men hold their fingers to their ears while watching the column of mist that rises; others throw sticks, paper, etc., into the force of the gas and watch the sparks distribute in the space above. The wells all tested 276 pounds of pressure. The demonstration was thoroughly satisfactory, but Gildersleeve, the photographer, was disappointed because there

Speeches at Dinner.

Returning from the gas field the visitors were entertained at a big dinner, served at the Commercial hotel. At this dinner Dr. R. B. Jackson was master of ceremonies and he proposed a toast which was drunk standing, with sparkling water as the beverage. Mrs. G. H. Stevens, "the best cook in Texas, who had cooked it with natural gas for fuel." The dinner was fine. At the dinner there were speeches by Mayor Mackey, E. F. Drake, H. M. Baine, W. W. Seley, Father Donnelly of St. Basil's college, City Commissioner Thomas A. Caulfield, Dr. Charles L. Watson, James Hays Quarles and City Commissioner John Dollins of the Waco party and Julius Nussbaum of the Mexia party. Mr. Drake said, "There is a field here big enough for all of us and for all the people in between. What we must do is to get together and distribute it."

Mr. Seley said the gas wells mean more to Waco than to Mexia; Waco must have factories and cheap fuel will develop them.

This closed the meeting, but negotiations were opened for an agreement between committees from the two towns.

Stop at Tehuacana.

On the way to Mexia J. J. Powers, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, and acting president; L. Migel, treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce; E. F. Drake, secretary; James Hays Quarles and E. B. Baker stopped at Tehuacana for a conference with J. J. Vannoy, member of the legislature from Limestone county, and a committee of citizens who want to confer with the Waco people regarding a railroad from Waco to Palestine, which will pass through Wotham, Tehuacana, Prairie Hill and Cooleidge. It was determined that just at this time nothing can be done toward financing a road, but that Waco is ready to take the matter up with the people along the route whenever money matters get easier.

On the trip to Mexia stops were made at Prairie Hill, Cooleidge, Della and Elk.

Personnel of Party.

In the Waco party were Mayor James H. Mackey, City Commissioner Caulfield, City Commissioner Dollins, E. M. Ainsworth, E. F. Drake, J. J. Powers, E. B. Baker, L. Migel, C. C. Shumway, F. A. Gildersleeve, Dudley Drake, L. B. Black, Father Donnelly, Father Gignac, H. M. Baine, W. W. Cameron, E. R. Bolton and wife and son, J. S. Hill, James Hays Quarles, L. C. Puckett, W. H. Jones, Dr. T. F. Smyth, A. W. Koch, Dr. J. L. Watson, Harry Kreuger, Dr. J. J. Dean, A. H. Bell and John B. Fisher. The trip was made in automobiles, some of the best cars of Waco being driven by their owners for the trip.

Crops Look Good.

In between Waco and Mexia the crops look good. Hundreds and hundreds of acres of cotton and corn appear to be in the best condition, the cotton especially so. Mr. Migel said his opinion is that there are not 100 acres of land between Waco and Mexia not in cultivation. From Tehuacana Hill, where Westminster College is located, the visitors had a magnificent view of the valley below. It is as fine a sight as one can find in America.

The people of Mexia were very cordial in their welcome. The Waco folks were treated royally, their money being refused as they were guests of Mexia while in the city.

Cheap Ice in New York.

New York, July 8.—War between wholesale ice dealers has created a situation without precedent in New York. The Knickerbocker is selling wholesale at $4 a ton, competitors are charging $5 and $6. As a result the Knickerbocker is swamped by demands and faces a shortage. It says it will not raise the price and the company's president has issued a statement appealing to the other companies to reduce their prices to attract the business the Knickerbocker cannot handle. The other dealers refuse to come down.

STORM KILLS THREE MEN

Property Damage in Elgin, Ill., Estimated at $50,000—City is in Darkness.

Elgin, Ill., July 8.—Three men were reported killed and property damage estimated at $50,000 was done by an electric storm here today. Four stores were unroofed by the wind and much damage was done to telephone and telegraph wires. Arthur Peterson, son of a wealthy farmer, four miles west of here, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Two men were reported killed at Pingree Grove.

The city was in darkness tonight owing to damage to the electric lighting plant. Street car traffic on several streets was blocked by fallen trees. Dundee and Sycamore, nearby villages both were damaged by wind.

Grasshoppers Threaten Corn.

Dodge City, Kan., July 8.—The corn crop in this part of Kansas is threatened with destruction by grasshoppers, according to statements by leading farmers. The hot weather of the past week has hatched millions of the insects and as most of the wheat has been harvested they are attacking corn.

Fort Worth, July 8.—After holding Waco hitless for six innings today, Rhodes weakened in the seventh and eighth, and on four singles, combined with as many errors, the Navigators took the final game of the series, 3 to 2. Hill was touched for eight hits, the three in the seventh netting a run. He kept the others scattered. Eberline's single in the fourth, after Salm had walked and stolen second, scored Fort Worth's only tally. Manager Morris today signed Joe McKinnon of the Thurber miners to play third base. Wallace will occupy the bench in the capacity of utility outfielder. Pitcher Allen of Ardmore drew a blue envelope tonight as a member of the Panthers.

Dallas 3, Austin 2.
Dallas, July 8.—Dallas made it two out of three in the series with Austin by copping the final game this afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. Effective pitching by Rudolph Schwenk, coupled with perfect fielding on the part of his teammates, was the principal cause of the downfall of the Senators. The Austin team was charged with three errors, but only one of these proved costly. The locals battled Lefty Lewis for a cluster of seven singles and one double and the three runs were scored by timely hitting.

Harry Williams of Galveston Hopes to Stick in the Majors

Galveston, July 8.—Harry Williams, Galveston's first baseman, who has been sold to the New York Americans for $2750, is a careful and conservative player. He is unusually quiet, seldom is known to question an umpire's decision and has always been anxious to co-operate in every way possible with Manager Maloney for the success of the team.

Williams was picked up by Maloney at the beginning of the 1912 season and was used as a catcher for months, taking the heavy end of the burden. In the middle of the 1912 season Manager Maloney needed a first baseman. Having plenty of catchers, he put Williams on the initial sack and has never regretted this action. In a recent interview Williams said: "I am glad for an opportunity to show what I can do in a major league. I was glad to learn that I was to be fitted for a berth in the outfield, for I believe that I can show to better advantage other than at first base or as a catcher. I am merely going to do my best and hope that my friends will not expect too much of me. In the event that I fail to make good with the New York Americans I hope to be able to play a game in the Texas league with the Galveston team."

Baseball Notes

Cliff Hill has pitched three games for the Navigators and won two of them. The game he pitched against the Dallas club should have been a win. He gave up but three hits. He was hit three times in yesterday's game in one inning for a run and a walk and a hit scored another.

Jake Dugay has been out of the game for three days on account of sickness. It is expected that he will be in shape for the next series.

"Hetty Green" is pronounced by the physicians to be well enough to get into the game next week. He has had a bunch of hard luck this season. He came to Waco from Indianapolis, where he seemed not to be in the best of shape. Immediately after his arrival he had trouble with his side and was operated upon, and meningitis germs were found in the abscesses which had formed. He got out again and seemed to be getting into shape when another operation was found to be necessary.

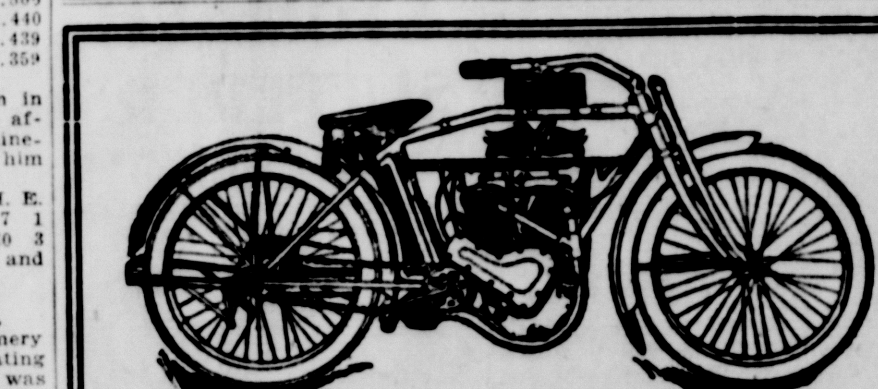

Bill Rennard has been sick for several days. He went to Dallas with the club, but was forced to return to Waco. He is up now and will probably join the club at Austin.

Fort Worth Signs Third Baseman.
Fort Worth, July 8.—Manager Morris of the Fort Worth team this morning signed Joe McKinnon of Thurber, Tex., a third baseman. He will be given a trial at once. Morris said yesterday in Thurber looking McKinnon over.

SALE OF GINS IS HURTFUL

Cottonseed Crushers Claim to Obey Ruling of Attorney General Will Work Hardship.

Dallas, July 8.—Fifty managers of cotton seed mills from various sections of the state met here today at the offices of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers' association to discuss the recent ruling of the attorney general to the effect that no oil mill corporation can legally own a gin or gins in connection with its business.

The meeting took no formal action other than maintaining they should be allowed to own gins.

A majority of the mill owners now own gins and the managers say that a decision forcing them to dispose of these properties would be very costly to them.

FOURTH REUNION OF CONFEDERATES

M'GREGGOR PEOPLE ARRANGE A
DAYS.

OPENS WITH BIG ATTENDANCE

Fine Dinner at the Mess Tent—Henry Exall Speaks—Some of the Veterans Present.

McGregor, July 8.—With more than 1500 people in attendance, the first day of the fourth annual reunion of McLennan county Confederate Veterans opened yesterday. Practically every town in Central Texas is represented; they came by rail, by auto, and by wagon, and each hour added to the numbers at the gathering.

The ceremonies were opened at 10 o'clock in the morning with a street parade and a band concert. The long line of horsemen and vehicles was led by J. P. Cavitt. Arriving at the grounds J. F. Gullidge welcomed the visitors. The privileges of the "camp" were thrown open to everyone.

Seith P. Mills of Waco responded. He paid high compliment to McGregor and the "McGregor way of entertaining" and then recounted what the event stood for, and what pleasure it brought to the veterans of the southern gray.

Until dinner the crowd surged here and there; the younger set thronged the midway, rode the "hobby horses" and drank red lemonade. The veterans congregated in the shade and fought the war over again. Their audience was large and appreciative. The housewives stirred about, preparing the midday meal or began "straightening up" their camps. Many families have their own tents on the grounds and will remain through the three days of the reunion.

At the Mess Tent.

Upon the stroke of noon, the veterans of the gray and their wives fell into line and marched to the "mess tent," where tables were reserved for them. One of the features of the menu was "fo-de-wah" chicken. The dinner was served free by the women of McGregor.

Others found "eats" at the different booths along the midway. Many of the campers cooked their own meals.

At 2 o'clock the McGregor band gave a concert of several numbers. The members play well and as a unit.

Following this, the visitors were addressed by Henry Exall, president of the Texas Industrial congress. With the speech over, the local teams played a hotly contested ball game.

The evening program began with a band concert, following which an "old-fiddlers' contest" was held. Mrs. H. F. Blacklock gave a patriotic reading. The program of the first day ended with the singing of a number of old songs.

While many of the exhibits and side shows were not in operation yesterday, the showing on the midway the first day was excellent. One of the most attractive booths is the double exhibit placed by the Cavitt-Lee company; in one is a well arranged display of cooking stoves. The wives visited here most of the day. On the other hand, the "family heads" took great interest in the other booth, where pumps, windmills and farm labor-saving machinery is shown.

The midway is well arranged, the association has secured a number of carnival attractions and throughout the day they were well patronized.

Waco and County Day.

Today is Waco and McLennan county day; the program is as follows:

10 a. m.—Band concert.

10:30—Address by Rev. W. P. Wittsell of Waco, on "The Life and Character of Jefferson Davis."

12 m.—Dinner.

2 p. m.—Band concert.

2:30 p. m.—Address by District Judge Tom P. McCullough.

3:30 p. m.—Address by Hon. Tom P. Stone of Waco.

4:30 p. m.—Hall game.

5:20 p. m.—Music by orchestra.

Program under direction of Mrs. J. S. Halley includes readings by Misses Mattie Russell, Hattie Walker, drill by children, song by Miss Margaret Potter, reading by Price Connally Jr., singing of old songs by chorus.

NEW "BIKE" LAW IS INVOKED

Perkins Is Charged With Taking,
Driving and Operating Bicycle.

Under a new law, which became effective July 1, complaint was sworn out in the county court, charging Leo Perkins with taking, driving and operating a motorcycle valued over $35. Perkins, it is alleged in the complaint, took the motorcycle of Herbert Williamson from in front of the Stratton Furniture Co. Saturday afternoon. It is said he was seen riding the machine yesterday. The officers were notified and the arrest followed.

The law under which he was arrested has just become effective, and is considered one of the most beneficial of the criminal laws passed by the recent legislature, because there was no statute heretofore under which persons could be tried for taking and driving motor-power vehicles. The law provides a penalty of not less than six nor more than twelve months' imprisonment.

JURY CASES DELAYED.

Bar Association Makes "Hot Weather" Ruling.

No civil jury cases will be tried in the Nineteenth district court until September. This was determined upon at a meeting of the bar association held in the court rooms yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. At the same time the docket for the term was called. The bar was unanimous in the desire not to try any jury cases during the hot weather. The present term lasts until October.

WILL CONTEST INJUNCTION.

Saloon Man Takes Case Into Court Today.

Contest of the injunction sworn out by the county attorney closing the saloon at 118 South Second street, operated by A. P. Simms, will begin in the Nineteenth district court this morning. The saloon has been closed since Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The injunction was secured on the ground that Simms was operating the place while the license was in the name of R. W. Penman, who had no connection with the saloon. The hearing was set for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, being postponed until Tuesday morning and again later deferred until this morning.

Charged with Threats.

H. D. Black, charged in previous complaints with aggravated assault and battery and resisting an officer, was yesterday charged in a complaint filed in the county court with serious threats. Black is in jail, having been arrested at Decatur, Tex., some days ago and returned to Waco. The complaints grew out of an attack on Patrolian W. T. Moore in East Waco. Moore attempted to effect an arrest, when, it is alleged, Black attacked him. After considerable search Moore located him at Decatur.

The new complaint charges that Black made threats to take Moore's life.

TO RESUME STRIKE INQUIRY

Senate Will Again Begin Investigation of West Virginia Coal Miners' War.

Washington, July 8.—The senate investigation of conditions in the West Virginia coal regions probably will be resumed next week, Senator Swanson, chairman of the investigating committee, said today.

Hearings will be resumed with the appearance of witnesses for the coal operators on the Paint and Cabin creek fields. Senator Kenyon will be authorized to make a trip to Charleston and complete the taking of testimony of various witnesses of the strike rioting in Paint and Cabin creeks.

The extension of the labor troubles to the New River field is expected to complicate the committee's work.

BLACK LAND FARMS IN THE BISHOP COUNTRY. RICH SOIL. LOW INTEREST. REASONABLE

TERMS—Bountiful cotton and feed crops are assured in the Bishop country by the splendid rains. Farmers who are cultivating their lands for the second and third years, are counting on a bale to the acre, if present prospects continue. The farmers who are building up this rich section are, with few exceptions, experienced Texas black land farmers, who have come from Central and North Texas, to take part in development of this territory and reap good profits from their industry.

There have been bought land at reasonable prices, as others are doing. With SIX PER CENT INTEREST on their deferred payments, and the land is turned over to them broken, ready for cultivation. Another feature: On sales made at this time, after the first cash payment is made, no other payment is to be made until November 1, 1915. After that date payments are made annually and run until November 1, 1921.

All notes are made payable "ON OR BEFORE," so that the purchaser can take them in or whole or in part, as he may be able or inclined.

It is no exaggeration or misrepresentation to say that the amount now being paid as rent by many farmers will practically take care of deferred payments on Bishop land, after the first payment is made.

The city of Bishop, only three years old, has a population approximating 2,000; it is the center of this rich black land farming section, which has been christened "THE BISHOP COUNTRY," and already has magnificent schools, a complete modern sewerage system, graded streets, cement sidewalks, a splendid hotel and more than 200 miles of good roads leading along all section lines and making the city easily accessible to the thrifty farmers who live along the roads. Bishop has an abundant and pure artesian water supply, good churches and all the advantages, even more, than are possessed by many cities of 10,000 population.

Full and reliable information about both country and city can be had by writing or call in person.

F. Z. BISHOP, Bishop, Texas.

We have just secured, by a lucky turn, 160 acres of proven oil land in the Petrolia oil field. Oil has been found on this land in paying quantities and we are willing to guarantee oil in paying quantities before claiming our money. We will begin to drill the first of the forty (40) wells which we have agreed to put down on this tract, within the next 10 days. We expect to be producing oil in paying quantities within 90 days and if we do not do so, we ask no money. In addition to the 40 wells we have agreed to drill on our 160 acres at Petrolia we are now drilling a deep well for oil on Pumpkin Ridge about 6 miles north of Petrolia, Clay county, Texas, where we own and control 3,311 acres. We will sell you a lot 20x30 feet near our drilling well and will give you an interest in the 3,311 acres, as well as an interest in the 40 wells to be put down on our 160 acres at Petrolia. You may pay 1/3 cash, balance in 30, 60 and 90 days. We will return cash deposit at the end of 90 days if we haven't struck oil in paying quantities on our land. We take all risk, we feel certain of success. Act quickly. God helps those who help themselves.

FIELD'S FAMOUS $18.00 SUITS

IN COTTON MARKET

PRICES HIGHER AND CLOSE-AT NET ADVANCE OF NINE POINTS—DAY QUIET.

August Shorts May Take Cotton to New York for Delivery From New England Mill Points.

New York, July 8.—The cotton market continued quiet today, but prices were higher and closed steady at a net advance of 5 to 9 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 2 points to an advance of 1 point and after some little irregularity the market improved on scattering demand, which seemed to come partly from foreign sources and partly from local sources.

Offerings were relatively firm, being influenced apparently by further shipments from the local stock and continued rumors that international houses were shipping cotton out in order to strengthen their position in August and October contracts.

The weekly report of the weather bureau was considered about a stand-off, for, although it indicated generally favorable conditions during the past week, it also mentioned the need of rain in several sections, while the day's detailed reports showed temperatures of 100 degrees or over at many sections in both Texas and Oklahoma.

The gossip concerning the near months situation included rumors that a spot interest, supposed to be short of August contracts in the market, might bring cotton here for delivery from New England mill points before the end of the season.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, July 8.—Cotton was quiet but steady today. Prices moved within a narrow range and neither side was aggressive. The weather was with the bears, as crop news, but at no time did any realizing power develop, while bulls found it easy to maintain prices on the bullish features that developed. Chief among these were the weekly weather reports, which noted droughty conditions still prevailing in a few important sections of the cotton region. The opening was steady at 1 point advance to 2 points decline. Cables were colorless and the market felt a little on the favorable weather returns from the belt. At the lowest in the early trading prices were 2 to 4 points under yesterday's close. This was the low of the day. The market did little until 11 o'clock, when the weekly weather reports were posted. They stimulated buying for both accounts to a moderate degree and put the list 2 to 7 points over yesterday's last quotations. The market dragged in the afternoon, closing at a net advance of 2 to 4 points on the trading months.

NEW CROP PRESSURE FORCES WHEAT DOWN, DESPITE LIBERAL EXPORT.

Purchases Break All Previous Records. War News Ineffective—Corn Is Steady—Hogs Go Higher.

Chicago, July 8.—Pressure of new wheat was too much for the market today, notwithstanding assertions that a liberal export business had been done at the seaboard. Closing prices although steady were 1/2 to 3/4 to 1/2 under last night. Corn finished unchanged to 1/4 down, oats off 1/4 to 1/2 and provisions varying from the same 25 hours before to an advance of 10 cents.

According to good authority no day in the history of Chicago as a wheat market ever before equalled the record made today for the huge amounts of new wheat brought to arrive here. In addition to the extraordinary aggregate of purchases of new red winter wheat grade from Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, there were heavy takings of both old and new hard winter to come here from west of the Missouri river. Most of these transactions were at the market for futures. Wheat prices bent downward from the start and at no time showed any important rally.

War news and exports were alike in failing to divert attention from the more immediate influence of the unprecedented readiness of the crop movement from the farms.

Decided falling off in rural offerings held corn steady. There also was improvement in spring call. An attempt at a dry wheat scare proved only fractionally successful. Speculative selling depressed oats.

Higher prices for hogs helped provisions upward. Most of the gain disappeared, however, under realizing sales by long.

Rains Uninjurious to Cotton. Galveston, July 8.—That the recent heavy rains in North Texas will not seriously deter cotton exports through Galveston for the current year, is the opinion of local cotton men, who say the first five months of 1912 a new record was set for cotton exports at this port. For June the cotton exports were valued at $2,256,462, involving 49,772 bales.

It is pointed out that though cotton crops in North Texas should be seriously hurt by the heavy rains, the export of this is true not only of cotton, but of all other exports. Cotton exported during June was sent to the following countries and in the quantity shown:

IN THE STOCK MARKET AMONG WHOLESALE

DRIFT IS DOWNWARD—U. P. IS ONLY SPECULATIVE OFFERING OF DAY.

$2,000,000 More Gold Exported to Paris—Demand for New York City Bonds—Bonds Irregular.

New York, July 8.—Although the stock market was subjected to further depressing influences today, it maintained a fair degree of steadiness. The drift was downward, but the movement was so slight as to be insignificant. Union Pacific was the only speculative stock which at its low price of the day showed a loss of as much as a point. European markets again were disturbed by the troubled Balkan situation and stocks here received the first downward impulse from the lower quotations sent from London.

Fears were expressed of renewed European liquidation, but only a few thousand shares were disposed of today for foreign account.

Bear traders received further encouragement from the engagement of $2,000,000 more gold for export to Paris and from the news that negotiations between the trainmen and managers of eastern railroads, to settle the wage question had been interrupted. Some success attended efforts to depress the market but bear pressure induced no general selling and when attempts to cover were made prices moved upward as readily as they had previously eased off.

There was no heavy trading and the day's movement consisted of slow fluctuations backward and forth within a narrow range with a heavy undertone. Great Northern Ore, Westinghouse Electric and American Telephone which were the weak features of yesterday's trading recovered part of their losses today. The lack of demand for stocks was the more noticeable by reason of the fact that a considerable volume of investment buying is looked for at this season, following heavy July interest and dividend payments. The July reinvestment demand thus far has been unusually light compared to other years. In the bond market there also was apparent lack of demand.

New York City bonds were in increased supply and a number of other bonds were seeking a market, with prices generally receding. Government bonds exhibited further heaviness. The 2s, which recently broke below par for the first time, sold today at the recent bid price of 99, a decline of a point from the last previous sale. The 4s sold at 113, the 5s at 114 1/2, and the 6s at 115 1/2. The 7s were offered at 112 1/2, a decline of 1/4 on the call on the day.

The bond market in general was irregular, with a lower trend. Total sales, par value, were $1,568,000.

LIVESTOCK.

Fort Worth, July 8.—All classes of cattle sold readily today, a supply of 2,300 head, including 500 calves, going over the scales before the noon hour. Beef steers were fully steady with the Monday advance and ranged around $5.50 to $7.50, three loads clearing at the latter price. Stocker steers looked stronger at a range of $5.50 to $6.45. Butcher cows and heifers were active and strong, a spread of $4.25 to $5.50. Choice heifers in small drafts brought $6.50 to $7.00. Bulls were scarce, selling on a steady basis at $4.25 to $5.50. Calves $4.50 to $7.50.

Hogs advanced 10c, top $9.27 1/2, bulk $9.15 to $9.25. About 1,000 arrived, mostly from Oklahoma.

Choice feed sheep were yarded, but regardless of the small crop trading was brisk at an advance of fully a quarter. The supply was mostly of a low-priced sort.

Kansas City, July 8.—Hogs—Receipts 11,000; steady to 1 1/2c higher. Bulk $8.90@9.00, heavy $8.90@9.25, packers and butchers $8.85@9.00, light $8.85@9.00, pigs $8.00@8.75.

Cattle—Receipts 8,600, including 1-100 southern; steady to 1 1/2c higher; prime fed steers $18.00@18.50, dressed beef steers $7.00@7.25, southern steers $5.50@7.50, cows $4.35@7.00, he

NEW LAW STORS PRODUCE HOUSES

ARE REFUSING CONSIGN-MENT SHIPMENTS.

CLAIMED MEASURE HURTFUL

Dealers Will Only Receive Shipments
Made on Straightout Sale.
Meeting Likely.

Because of the new commission merchant law which went into effect July 1, Waco produce dealers, and produce dealers in every city in the state, for that matter, face a peculiar situation and it is likely that they will hold a meeting soon to determine what action to take. The new law is relative to their bonds and the manner in which goods must be assigned to them,
and, it is claimed, works a hardship
on the commission men which they can not well bear.

In the meantime, pending definite decision as to what course to pursue, consignments of produce sent to Waco
to be sold by commission men are being refused and either returned to the shipper at his expense or sold by the express company which acts as carrier.

Substance of Law.
In substance the law requires that each commission merchant shall file a bond for $2000 for the protection of his shippers; that this bond must be signed by two or more property owners, each of which must qualify for double the amount of the surety,
or an indemnity bond may be filed
if similarly safeguarded. This bond must be approved by one of the judges of a court at law in the county in which the commission man does business and then filed with the county clerk. Should any action be taken against the bond or bondsmen for malfeasance or misfeasance of the principal, suit must be instituted in the county wherein bond is filed and it is up to the commission man to prove his innocence. Failure to file such a bond, or to receive goods to be handled on commission without such a bond having been previously filed, is subject to a fine of from $100 to $500.

In addition the law provides that each shipper shall send with his goods an inventory covering character, quantity and quality, and immediately upon receipt of goods the receiver shall mail receipt of receipt of same, embracing numbers, weights and measures and a description of any goods which may have been damaged in transit. In addition to this the receiver is compelled to sign an express or freight receipt for the goods which must show condition in which received and this receipt must be kept on file for six months by the railroad or express company handling it for the inspection of shipper, if desired.

Too Much Bookkeeping.
The law also provides that the commission merchant must render the shipper an account sale showing to whom goods were sold and at what price within five days after disposing of same. There are other provisions equally as intricate and which, commission merchants say, it is impossible for them to comply with without adding greatly to their clerical force and with more or less schooling, which is impossible on short notice.

The new law repeals the old law which required commission men in Texas to file a bond of $2000.

What the Dealers Say.
Following are expressions from a few of the commission men here relative to the law:

C. H. Cox & Co.—To say we were surprised is to put it mildly, as we had not heard of the law before. We shall simply refuse to handle any perishable produce on consignment; what we handle we'll buy direct. It is the most ridiculous piece of legislation we ever heard of.

Miller Produce Co.—So far as we are concerned, the grower of produce will have to take the risk; we certainly will not. If the grower can stand it,
we can.

Turner-Coffield Co.—We will do the best we can, but don't say why we should shoulder all the risk. This law will knock out many shippers, as dealers will be compelled to raise to handle produce on consignment unless there is some way to secure immunity from loss.

Lightner & Co.—We are going to know where we stand before we accept any more produce on consignment.
As we now see it, the risk
would be all ours.

Other produce dealers and commissioners dealers expressed similar opinions.

It is pointed out that the same conditions that confront Waco produce dealers exist in every city in the state.
It is possible that the railroad commission will be asked to take some action relative to the matter.

The consensus of opinion is that the law is really a benefit to commission merchants and will have a tendency to eliminate the "wild cat" commission dealers, although it at first works hardships on all, principally shippers.

To Speak at Baylor.
Dr. H. T. Musselman, editor of the Texas School Magazine, will speak at Baylor University in Carroll Chapel
Friday night at 8:30 o'clock on the "Montessori" method of teaching.

The university is being extremely anxious to secure Dr. Musselman, because of his prestige as a school man, to discuss this subject that is attracting such attention among progressive teachers.

The address is arranged for the special benefit of public school teachers and those interested in school affairs.
No charges will be made and the university officials extend a cordial invitation to the general public.

Building Permits.
The following city building permits
were issued yesterday:
Allen D. Sandford, Austin avenue, dwelling with ten rooms; estimated cost $12,500.

J. S. Crosslin, North First street,
two-room cottage; estimated cost $250.
J. A. Loughbridge, 514 North Twelfth street, repairs; estimated cost $100.
Colored school, North Sixth street, addition to building; estimated cost

The demand for girls to work in homes is always greater than the supply.

MANY WACOANS GO TO B. Y. P. U. CAMP

SPECIAL CAR LEAVES FOR PA-LACIOS—PRESIDENT DA-VIS GOES FIRST.

TWO LOCAL SPEAKERS LEAVE

Want Larger Delegation and Camp-house on the Grounds—Daily Schedule for Two Weeks.

A special car of Wacoans left for the Baptist Young People's encampment at Palacios-by-the-Sea over the Houston & Texas Central last night
at 10:15. The party goes to Houston and makes connection with a special to the coast.

Valter Davis, president of the encampment, left on an earlier train.
He said before his departure that it was the opinion of the leaders, who have been in regular attendance at the twenty-three annual encampments, that this year's program is the strongest in the history of the assembly.

The reports from the larger cities is that the attendance will exceed four thousand for the two weeks.
Waco will furnish two of the platform speakers for the encampment.

Dr. F. C. McConnell, pastor of the First Baptist church, and President
S. P. Brooks of a university, Dr.
McConnell's addresses will come this week, and will be on the subject of great Biblical characters. Dr. Brooks does not leave until next week. He will give a series of lectures on "The Coming American Citizenship."

The Wacoans should have a house on the grounds large enough to accommodate fifty people and should have a special train load of delegates each year instead of a coach, was the sentiment expressed in a rally meeting of the delegates previous to their departure. Several other large cities of the state have their own buildings
on the encampment grounds and it is the purpose of the Waco delegates to organize upon arrival at Palacios and take steps toward the erection of a similar building for next year.

President Davis of this city, will call the convention order to session at 8 o'clock. Robert H. Coleman of Dallas, will lead in a rally song service, followed immediately by the opening sermon, preached by Dr.
George W. Truett of Dallas.

CHARTER IS ABOUT COMPLETE
Medical Board and Inspector Provision Should Be Acted Upon—Meeting Thursday.

Except for the taking up of a few provisions, the charter revising committee practically completed its work
last night. The only important clause to be acted upon is that providing for a medical board and inspectors. The committee will probably invite the board of health to call with it at the Thursday night meeting.

The charter will in all likelihood be submitted to the general committee
within less than three weeks.

Although some friction still prevails,
it was suggested that no minority reports be brought in. The suggestion was made by Mr. Carroll.

MET DEATH FROM UNKNOWN AGENCY HOLDS CORONER

PROBE INTO WALKER CASE ENDS
LONG INVESTIGATION—SAUN-DERS IS EXONERATED.

That Harry Walker came to his death by a fall upon the sidewalk, caused by an unknown agency, was
the verdict rendered in the inquest hearing by Justice J. J. Padgett yesterday. Judge Padgett's verdict was
that Harry Walker came to his death from a fall upon the pavement of North Fifth street in the city of Waco on the night of 25th of May,
and that said fall was caused by some agency unknown to me, and which I have been unable to discern after having before me and examining the eyewitnesses to the accident and after a searching inquiry into all the facts and evidence attainable by me.

Walker died the morning of May 26 under peculiar circumstances. It was the general opinion that he had been struck by an automobile and injured.
The attending physicians stated that Walker died from a hemorrhage of the brain.

Walker fell or was knocked down
the night before, just after he had alighted from a street car at North Waco. The automobile of W. R. Saunders passed just at that time and the general impression gained agency
that he had been struck by the auto.
Justice Padgett conducted an inquest and has held hearings from time to time since the accident. Last Sat-day he announced the hearing had been closed and the verdict would be rendered Tuesday.

The verdict throws little light on the cause of Walker's death, and it is probable the real cause will never be known, but the fact is fixed that Mr.
Saunders is exonerated by the verdict of the coroner.

COMMISSIONS DEFERS MEETING
Mayor Mackey, Caulfield and Dollins
Went to the Mexia Gas Fields.

A called meeting of the city commission will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. The regular meeting, which was to have been held Tuesday morning, was postponed in order to permit
members of the commission to accompany the Waco business men on the trip of inspection to the Mexia gas fields. Mayor James H. Mackey and Commissioners John Dollins and T. A.
Caulfield went on the trip.

The regular business of the board will be disposed of this morning, and it is probable the result of the visit to the gas fields will be discussed. No authoritative action with reference to the city taking action to pipe the gas
here is expected at the meeting.

Encourages the Young

Anything that is a pleasure is well done. Youthful fingers take to the Mehlin—its action is so light, even, elastic;
its tone so easily brought forth in all its sweetness.

Start your children right. Give them the instrument that develops the musical education perfectly from the first lesson. The Mehlin has been a real aid to beginners in thousands of homes.

Come in. Bring the family to hear it. The boys and girls will enjoy a Mehlin concert—will see what pleasure it would be to play it themselves.

Waco Negroes Erect A $25,000 Church

The St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church has begun the excavations for a modern church structure, with a seating capacity of 600,
to cost approximately $25,000, at Second and Webster streets.

In speaking of the structure, Rev.
E. J. Howard, the pastor, said that his own people were giving liberally and that they were going to erect one of the most complete negro church buildings in the state. The basement will be a full story and equipped with special reference to activities of the young people. In fact, Rev. Howard expects to make the church a social center and has planned to meet other needs besides that of an auditorium.

As the pastor expressed it, "My people do not have the money to build Y. M. C. A. and club buildings and we are going to build a structure that will combine all these things."

The church contains some of the oldest and most respected negroes of the city and the friends of the church
are enthusiastic over their "new era,"
as they term it.

Practically half of the money has been raised and the remainder is expected to be raised before the completion of the building. Several of the white pastors of the city are going to assist in acquiring the necessary funds.

The cornerstone will be laid some time in August and it is the plan of the congregation to have elaborate ceremonies and rally day, with visitors from all the neighboring towns.
